I think sometimes with other firms that I've worked with, they just seemed very busy and they didn't really want to take her time and effort to explain why we were doing something.

The issue that led me to the Miller Law Firm was I needed to become a guardian for my mother. I had not reached out to any other attorneys before. I was referred by an attorney that said this was the best law firm for my needs.

What made me feel that this was the best fit was Shannon making me feel comfortable with the decision that we were making. The staff was able to guide me through the initial process of setting up the guardianship and getting the training done to become a guardian. They set up the steps that I needed to do. They made sure that I was able to get all the documentation ready for the judge. I felt very, very prepared.

The things that stick out with me about Shannon and the Miller Law Firm is just the friendliness and the family atmosphere that they have there. No matter what obstacle, they were more than happy to help me understand what it is I needed to get done. I would highly recommend the Miller Law Firm.

The perfect client would be someone that just needs a calming office that is here to support you and help you through the difficult time that you're going through. They all have wonderful open hearts and are there to make sure that you are successful.
